Interested in Scouting?

Sacramento's Troop One started in 1916 and bills itself as "the Oldest Troop West of the Rockies." We've been continuously operating in California's capitol city for over 100 years.

The troop membership consists of 50-70 Scouts and over 100 parents and alumni.

Troop One works hard to provide the best scouting experience available. Our activities include:

- Weekly troop and patrol meetings where Scouts learn life long skills
- Monthly weekend outings at local, state, and national parks
- A week at Troop One's off-the-grid camp, Camp Cody, high in the Sierra Nevada (7250')

During these activities, Scouts learn the skills needed to advance along the trail to Eagle Scout. Troop One is a Scout-run troop. Older Scouts learn to be leaders as they conduct meetings, direct outings, and mentor the new Scouts in learning new skills.
